

John E. "Mo" Brodie

Services: 2 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 16, Comtrea Center, Arnold, Mo.

ARNOLD, Mo. — John E. "Mo" Brodie, 65, died July 27, 2008, at the St. Anthony's de Greef Hospice House in St. Louis, Mo., after a long, brave and courageous battle with cancer.

In lieu of flowers, condolences and memorials may be made out to Missouri Baptist Cancer Center in care of Sharon A. Brodie, 1317 Apple Hollow Drive, Arnold, MO. 63010.

Mr. Brodie was born June 21, 1943, the son of James "Jim" and Elizabeth Ferguson Brodie.

He graduated from Muscatine High School. He received a bachelor's from the University of Iowa and a master's from Webster University, St. Louis, Mo.

He married Linda Proffitt August of 1960 and they later divorced.

He married Sharon A. Hiner Shenk on Feb. 14, 1976, in Moline, Ill.

He was a special person to many people. He was an avid golfer, a skilled musician and loved his Harley Davidson motorcycle, which he enjoyed many long rides.

He was a devoted counselor at Comtrea for 18 years.

He will be deeply missed by his wife, Sharon A. Brodie, of Arnold; a sister, Ann Misel and husband, Jim of Costa Mesa, Calif.; three daughters, Jennifer Quandt and husband, Jim of Effingham, Ill., Angela Tarter and husband, Scott of Springfield, Ill., Michelle Lorton and husband, Matt of Chatham, Ill.; two stepdaughters, Becky Anson and husband, Greg of Taylor Ridge, Ill., Beth Anne Qualls and husband, Brad of Muscatine; a stepson, Brian Steele and wife, Dianna of Muscatine; grandchildren, Jason Quandt, Steven Quandt, Justin Quandt, Erica Snyder, Brody Snyder, Hailee Tarter, Lukas Lorton, Lane Lorton, Alex Sellers, Miyah Sellers, Danielle Shenk, Amanda Whitworth, Sydney Weggen, Mason Qualls, Jamie Qualls, Brandon Qualls, Brenden Steele and Emma Steele; great-grandchildren, Alexandria Vanacker, Kailee VanAcker; nieces, Lesa Blake and husband, Gary of Costa Mesa, Calif., Laura Corboy and husband, Brian of Everett, Wash.; great-nieces and nephews, Matthew Blake, Bethanie Blake, Sean Corboy, Aleta Corboy and John's two cats, Frank and Betsy.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

