Bob Ceccarini

Bob has been a member of the Muny Opera Orchestra for the past 42 years, playing over 200 different Broadway shows. In 1977 and 1978 he toured with the first international company of A Chorus Line.

Mr. Ceccarini started his professional career by playing with Sammy Gardner and the Mound City Six Dixieland Band on Gaslight Square. He then became a member of the Saint Louis Brass Quintet. Bob has done freelance work with Russ David, Johnny Polzin, Bonnie Ross and Dick Renna on the Admiral.

Bob has performed as an extra with the Saint Louis Symphony Orchestra for several years. He currently plays for the Muny Opera Orchestra, Repertory Theatre of Saint Louis, the Fox Theatre Orchestra, Dance Saint Louis and leads the River City Ramblers Dixieland Band for Young Audiences. The River City Ramblers have toured the United States and internationally, performing in Cairo, Egypt.

Bob Ceccarini's favorite jobs are the three P's: Presley (Elvis), Pope (John Paul II) and Pavarotti (Luciano).
