Beth Hoffman

Beth Hoffman has been a member of the Muniy Orchestra since 1988. She currently resides in Iowa, where she teaches violin at Coe and Cornell Colleges, and Kirkwood Community College.

Ms. Hoffman's professional experience includes Concertmaster of Waterloo-Cedar Falls Symphony, Associate Concertmaster of Cedar Rapids Symphony, Cedar Rapids Opera, Waterloo-Cedar Falls Symphony, and Associate Principal Second of the Quad City Symphony. She also has performed musical theater at the Stephen Sondheim Center for the Performing Arts in Fairfield, Iowa, for Way Off Broadway Productions.

Her teachers include Allen Ohmes, Roman Totenburg, and in Saint Louis, Silvan Iticovici and Jenny Lind Jones. Along with her love for teaching, she enjoys chamber music and has been First Violin in the Cedar Rapids Symphony Quartet and loves reading and performing with amateur string players.
